There was a time when the Israelites needed a leader. God called Gideon and told him to save them... On Judges 6.15 Gideon answered and said, “Pardon me, sir. how can I save Israel? My family group is the weakest in the tribe of Manasseh, and I am the youngest one in my family.”

Judges 6.36-40 “God sent Gideon to defeat the enemies but Gideon said to God, “You said that you would help me save the Israelites. Give me proof. I will put a sheepskin on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the sheepskin, while all the ground is dry, I will know that you will use me to save Israel, as you said.” And that is exactly what happened. Gideon got up early the next morning and squeezed the sheepskin. He was able to drain a bowl full of water from it. Then Gideon said to God, “Don’t be angry with me. Let me ask just one more thing. Let me test you one more time with the sheepskin. This time let the sheepskin be dry, while the ground around it gets wet with dew.” That night God did that very thing. Just the sheepskin was dry, but the ground around it was wet with dew.”
